It's all about people. At Valley Credit Union, that has been our philosophy since our founding as a not-for-profit institution in 1953. Although we have grown dramatically since then, we have held firmly to our roots by actively supporting the communities we serve.

Originally chartered to serve the people working in the telecommunications industry, Valley Credit Union now serves more than 300 select employer groups throughout the Bay Area and beyond. And through our field of membership expansion, individuals who live, work or worship in Santa Clara, Alameda and Contra Costa counties are all eligible to join Valley Credit Union.

The Beneficiary

Chase The Stars Foundation

The Chase The Stars Foundation supports programs and events that directly improve the quality of children's lives. Through supporting these programs, the foundation hopes that children will be better equipped to realize their dreams. Founded in 2004 by gold medal Olympian

Kerri Walsh, the program has defined its mission as making an immediate and positive impact on the lives of as many children as possible.

Kerri Walsh's Chase The Stars Foundation is maintained in partnership with Community Foundation Silicon Valley. To date, the Foundation has helped to support the Women's Sports Foundation, the Starlight Starbright Children's Foundation and the Boys and Girls Clubs of Silicon Valley.
